1 AN INTRODUCTION TO PAIA AND POPIA

1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 ("PAIA")

1.1.1 PAIA came into operation on 9 March 2001, which among other things:

1.1.1.1 seeks to give effect to the Constitutional right of access to any information held by the State or by any other person where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any right and gives natural and juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights;

1.1.1.2 sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to information requests, including the obligation to compile a PAIA Manual; and

1.1.1.3 obliges both public and private bodies to compile a PAIA manual, which PAIA manual sets out how a person, who is desirous of requesting certain information which he/she/it believes he/she/it has a right to, may go about requesting such information.

1.1.2 Where a person is desirous of obtaining information from a private body, in terms of PAIA, then such person must make a request for this by following the laid out procedure and using the prescribed forms, described under the private body's PAIA manual.

1.1.3 On receipt of the request, the body receiving the request must decide if it is able to provide the requested information to the requester in accordance with the provisions of PAIA.

1.2 The Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 of 2013 ("POPIA")

1.2.1 POPIA, which largely commenced on 1 July 2020, gives effect to a person's rights to privacy, including the rights to data privacy, and which Act, in accordance with this objective, describes and prescribes a series of conditions which have to be met when personal information is processed and used by another person, which conditions establish the minimum requirements for the processing of personal information.

1.2.2 POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information.

1.2.3 POPIA has established the office of the Information Regulator who will oversee and ensure that POPIA and PAIA are complied with by all persons, including individuals, and public and private entities in the Republic of South Africa.

13.2 Requesters must stipulate in their request for information what health information is required, understanding that information held by a medical practitioner must be obtained directly from him or her. No hospital can release information held by another party, or information that is protected by a medical practitioner /patient relationship.

13.3 The Information Officer, in terms of section 50 of PAIA, may only grant a request for access to information and/or a record provided by a medical practitioner in his or her capacity as such, about the physical or mental health of the requester him/herself, or to authorised person making such a request on behalf of the person concerned.

13.4 The Information Officer may in terms of section 61(1) of PAIA, refuse access to information and/or records, if he or she is of the opinion that such disclosure would cause serious harm to the requester’s physical and/or mental health.

13.5 Before the Information Officer allows, grants or facilitates access to information and/or records, he or she may consult with the treating medical practitioner who, subject to section 61(2) of PAIA had been nominated by the relevant person.

13.6 If the relevant person is:

13.6.1 under the age of 16 years, a person having parental responsibilities for the relevant person, must make the nomination referred to in section 61(2)(a) of PAIA; and/or 13.6.2 incapable of managing his or her affairs, a person appointed by the court to manage those affairs must make that nomination.

13.7 If after the Information Officer has given access to the medical practitioner, and the medical practitioner is of the opinion that the disclosure of the information and/or record to the relevant person, would likely cause serious harm to his or her physical and/or mental health, or well being, the Information Officer may only grant access to that information and/or record if he or she has been given sufficient guarantees by the requester, that adequate provision has been made for such counselling or arrangement as are reasonably practicable before, during or after the disclosure of the information and/or record limit, alleviate or avoid such harm to the relevant person.

13.8 Before access to the information and/or record is so given to the requester, the person responsible for such counselling or arrangements must be given access to the information and/or record.

13.9 The Information Officer may also refuse access to the information and/or records in terms of any other law.

14 PRESCRIBED FEES

14.1 Once a request is made, the Information Officer will send an acknowledgement of receipt notice to the requester requesting payment of the prescribed request fee of R140.00 (one hundred and forty rand).

14.2 This prescribed fee must be paid before the request will be processed.

14.3 Payment of this fee is to be made as directed by the Information Officer.

14.4 The Information Officer will then make a decision in respect of the request and the requester will be notified of the decision on the required form.

14.5 Should the request be refused, the requester may lodge an application at court against the tender or payment of the requested fee as will be advised in the notice (in terms of section 54(3)(b) of PAIA).

14.6 If the request is granted, then a further access fee is payable for the search, reproduction and preparation of the record in a particular format as well as for any time, that has exceeded the prescribed hours, to search and in order prepare the record for disclosure (in terms of section 54(6) of PAIA).

14.7 The fees schedule can be downloaded from the Department of Justice website at <http://www.doj.gov.za>.

15 PROOF OF IDENTITY

When requesting records or information under PAIA or POPIA, you will be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

16 TIMELINES FOR CONSIDERATION OF A REQUEST FOR ACCESS

16.1 Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, from date of receipt thereof, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed.

16.2 Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary, which in most cases shall be a period of 30 (thirty) days.

17 GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

17.1 There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused. These grounds include:

- the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
- if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
- if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
- if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put CCBA at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition; and/or
- if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by CCBA.

17.2 Section 70 of PAIA contains an overriding provision. Disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

18 REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

18.1 If the Information Officer decides to grant a requester access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

18.2 Where the Information Officer declines any requester access to the particular record, such decision will be relayed to the requester. There is no internal appeal procedure.

18.3 In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome you are entitled to apply to the Information Regulator or a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

19 REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION AFFECTING THIRD PARTIES

19.1 If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

19.2 Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days, you must be granted access to the record.
